

London School of Economics - Department of Law
Harvard Law School - Islamic Legal Studies Program

Public Lecture on Building Bridges Across Financial Communities

This lecture will focus on the broader issue of how Islamic finance can build bridges into a wider range of financial services and communities.

Speaker

Mr. Iqbal A. Khan

Chief Executive Officer, Fajr Capital Limited, Dubai, United Arab Emirates
Mr. Khan is an international renown figure in the Islamic finance industry. His previous works include Founding CEO of HSBC Amanah, Managing Director of Citi Islamic Investment Bank, and Chief Executive at Dar al Maal Islamic Group of Genva

Shaykh Haytham Tamim

Director, Shari'ah solutions Limited, London
A London-based shari'ah scholar, advising several Islamic Financial institutions both in the United Kingdom and outside including the Middle East

Opening Remarks

Sir Howard Davies

Director, London School of Economics

Moderator

Dr. Frank E. Vogel

Founding Director, Islamic Legal Studies Program, Harvard Law School

Wednesday, 23rd February 2011
Lecture: 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm
Tower 1, Room TW1.U8
London School of Economics, London