

HomePublic eventsEvents transcripts 2012LSE Events Programme Ad Rates and SpecificationsPodcasts and videosLSE LiveEvents transcriptsToday's eventsThis week's eventsNext week's eventsThis month's eventsNext month's eventsLSE events programmeComing to an event at LSETicketed eventsBrowse LSE events informationSearch LSE events informationLSE Space for Thought SeriesThe Ralph Miliband Programme

Global Calls for Economic Justice: the potential of Islamic finance

Page contents > Podcasts | Twitter and Facebook | CPD | Accessibility

2012 LSE-Harvard public lecture on Islamic Finance

Date: Wednesday 22 February 2012

Time: 6.30-8pm

Venue: Hong Kong Theatre, Clement House

Speakers: Mukhtar Hussain, Professor Volker Nienhaus

Chair: Justice Cranston

It is felt that conventional financial systems have failed and should be replaced, or supplemented, by more ethical banking and socially responsible finance. Can Islamic Finance, as a system with a strong religious background and moral framework, satisfy this hope?

Mukhtar Hussain is chief executive officer at HSBC Malaysia.

Volker Nienhaus is visiting professor, University of Reading.

Suggested hashtag for this event for Twitter users: #lseislamfin

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required. Entry is on a first come, first served basis. For any queries email events@lse.ac.uk or call 020 7955 6043.

Media queries: please contact the Press Office if you would like to reserve a press seat or have a media query about this event, email pressoffice@lse.ac.uk

From time to time there are changes to event details so we strongly recommend that if you plan to attend this event you check back on this listing on the day of the event.

Podcasts

We aim to make all LSE events available as a podcast subject to receiving permission from the speaker/s to do this, and subject to no technical problems with the recording of the event. Podcasts are normally available 1-2 working days after the event.

Twitter and Facebook

You can get immediate notification on the availability of an event podcast by following LSE public lectures and events on Twitter, which will also inform you about the posting of transcripts and videos, the announcement of new events and other important event updates. Event updates and other information about what's happening at LSE can be found on the LSE's Facebook page.

CPD

This event has been certified for CPD purposes by the Continuing Professional Development Certification Service. It is the responsibility of delegates to register their details with a LSE event steward at the event in order to obtain a CPD certificate of attendance. If a delegate fails to register their details at the event, it will not prove possible to issue a certificate. Certificates of attendance will be emailed out within 10 working days of the event.

Accessibility

If you are planning to attend this event and would like details on how to get here and what time to arrive, as well as on accessibility and special requirements, please refer to Coming to an event at LSE