ISLAMIC ART EXHIBITION - March 30-June 29

Treasures of the Aga Khan Museum: Architecture in Islamic World

Islamic Arts Museum Malaysia, Jalan Lembah Perdana, Kuala Lumpur

A travelling exhibition of objects and art from the Aga Khan Museum collections, will run from 30th March to 29th June 2012 at the Islamic Arts Museum Malaysia in Kuala Lumpur. The exhibition is divided into six sections: "Sacred Typographies", which explores the sites and monuments of Islamic pilgrimage through paintings and drawings; "Religious and Funerary Architecture", which examines mosques and commemorative shrines; "The Fortress and the City", which encompasses forts and fortified towns; "The Palace", which looks at the residences of royal families; "Gardens, Pavilions and Tents", which discusses the arts of shelter; and "Architecture and the Written Word", which focuses on architectural spaces contained in miniature painting. For more information, please see Islamic Arts Museum Malaysia website.
