CALL TO ACTIONShifting Gears and Accepting Accountability

by The Honourable Sheila C Bair (/speakers/the-honorable-sheila-c-bair)

Former Chairman, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, USA

What needs to be done to make institutions stronger and regulators more effective? What are the challenges in devising a system to identify risks that threaten market stability before they become a danger to the general public? And are memories of the global financial crisis fading in the light of improving economic conditions?

9.45am – 10.15am

IDEAS

with The Honourable Sheila C Bair (/speakers/the-honorable-sheila-c-bair)

11.30am - 11.45am

Pause & Percolate

11.45am – 1.00pm

TRUSTBANK IIBeyond Profits : Responsible, Sustainable and Inclusive Business

Economic growth must also be a means to advance social goals. The reform programme following action by governments following the GFC is unfinished: governments need to spend more on education, health care and other key areas. While growth may not guarantee sustained social progress, it is the essential condition for it. Are businesses, governments, academics, think tanks and NGOs on common ground when it comes to this subject?

1. Tan Sri Dato' Azman Mokhtar (</speakers/tan-sri-azman-mokhtar>), Managing Director, Khazanah Nasional, Malaysia
2. Ann Pettifor (</speakers/adrian-mowat-2>), Director of Policy Research in Macroeconomics (PRIME), UK

Consume & Converse

2.30pm – 3.30pm

DISRUPTIVE INNOVATIONThe Future of Business

with Tan Sri Dr Tony Fernandes (</speakers/tony-fernandes>), Group CEO, AirAsia, Malaysia

Innovation and disruption are similar in that they are both makers and builders. Disruption takes a left turn by literally uprooting and changing how we think, behave, do business, learn and go about our day-to-day. A disruption displaces an existing market, industry, or technology and produces something new and more efficient and worthwhile. It is at once destructive and creative.

Moderator: Riz Khan (</speakers/riz-khan>), Host and Moderator of WCMS

3.30pm – 5.00pm

THE BROAD VIEW

Market Outlook, 2014

The world's financial markets continue to be driven by expectations of global economic recovery and of monetary easing in the US, Europe and Japan. Markets have lurched between short-term gains and bouts of volatility, with disproportionate pressure on emerging market assets. What is the greatest hope for global recovery today? What would this imply for investment returns across the different asset classes? And what is the view of risks going forward?

1. Michael Spencer (</speakers/michael-spencer>), Chief Economist and Head of Research, Asia Pacific, Deutsche Bank, Hong Kong
2. Adrian Mowat (</speakers/adrian-mowat>), Chief Asian and Emerging Market Equity Strategist, JP Morgan, Asia Pacific, Hong Kong
3. Firas Nasir (</speakers/26-panellists-moderators/28-firas-nasir>), Managing Director and Co-Head, Carlyle MENA Fund, The Carlyle Group, UAE
4. Christopher Eoyang (</speakers/26-panellists-moderators/57-christopher-eoyang>), Managing Director, Chief Emerging Markets Strategist and Co-Head, Asia Pacific Portfolio Strategy Group, Goldman Sachs, Singapore

Moderator: Susan Li (</speakers/susan-li>), Bloomberg Television, Hong Kong

5.00pm – 5.15pm

Concluding Address

5.15pm

Relax & Reflect

End

With Riz Khan (</speakers/riz-khan>) as Host and Moderator
