9th Annual Islamic Finance Summit

23rd and 24th February 2010
The Landmark, London

The Context

The industry's insatiable appetite for growth and innovation is harshly juxtaposed against the backdrop of the financial crisis. Finding the balance between dealing with the fall out from the credit crunch whilst driving the industry forward to re-establish its competitiveness globally with conventional financing is a difficult but essential task.

Euromoney Seminars' 9th Annual Islamic Finance Summit is an ideal opportunity to hear from the industry's leading practitioners on the prospects for this exciting form of financing.

Hear from the Shari'ah scholars as they reflect on the latest fatwas that have been issued. Economists and regulators will review the current economic climate, the ever changing regulatory environment influencing the financial markets worldwide and the nuances of Islamic financial regulation and supervision in the context of this broader economic setting. Finally the commercial drivers and the hurdles to future development in the industry will be debated amongst senior bankers and legal professionals as well as other key practitioners and stakeholders involved in the industry.

The Event

Why attend?

- Hear from the most senior Shari'ah scholars as they reflect on the latest fatwas that have been issued
- The largest, most senior Islamic Finance event in the world
- Economists and regulators will review the current economic climate & the ever changing regulatory environment of Islamic financial regulation and supervision
- Help drive the debate as senior bankers, legal professionals and other key practitioners involved in the industry voice their views in this unique Islamic finance forum

The Organisers

Euromoney Seminars has been at the forefront of this exciting industry for the past decade and continues to deliver the premier Islamic finance event for the industry. Playing host to the industry's most senior and distinguished representatives, the summit provides an incomparable platform on which to network and debate the most pressing issues within Islamic finance.

THE ANNUAL HEADS OF ISLAMIC FINANCE PANEL DISCUSSION

Key issues to be covered include:

- With improving credit conditions in the conventional markets, will this be a precursor to the reopening of Islamic markets?
- How is the global Islamic finance market place shaping and developing as a result of the recent turmoil?
- How will the collapse in asset prices influence the growth of the Islamic finance market?
- Increasing vigilance from regulators
- Lack of transparency in accounting and the influence of new regulation
- What is the business model for Islamic finance institutions going forward?
- Creating a truly diversified Islamic services group for a new era in global banking
- Diversifying into multiple lines of business; an expensive but more sustainable strategy?
- Comparisons with the global investment banking industry where benchmark deals are being undertaken – will this filter down into the region?

Hussein A Hassan, Head of Structuring, MENA, Global Markets, Deutsche Bank

ANNUAL OPEN FATWA AND SHARI'AH AUDIENCE DISCUSSION

The fallout from the financial crisis has had a profound influence on the global capital markets and the Islamic Finance industry has not got through the turmoil unscathed. The consequences of the difficulties faced worldwide are influencing the industry through restructuring of Islamic structures in event of defaults, changes to regulation to reflect the greater need for transparency and adapting new issuance structures to reflect the issues experienced in workouts. When adapting to this new paradigm in global financial services Islamic practitioners world-wide need to consider Shari'ah implications. The Annual Open Fatwa and Shari'ah Audience Discussion is one of the most eagerly anticipated debates of the Islamic Finance summit. It offers a rare occasion to hear from the leading Shari'ah scholars from across the globe. This unrivalled panel will be providing their interpretations of Islamic Law in the context of the state of the current financial markets as well as answering your questions.

Outstanding contribution to Islamic finance

We invite nominations for the Outstanding Contribution to the Development of Islamic Finance. Previous winners have included Professor Rifaat Ahmed Abdel Karim, H.E. Sheikh Ahmed bin Mohammed Al-Khalifa and Sheikh Nizam Yaquby.

How the awards are judged

The Euromoney Islamic finance awards are judged by a panel comprised of Euromoney's Editor, our journalists covering the region and the head of our awards research department.

We aim to make the process as transparent as possible. In addition to the submissions received, we undertake our own research, market commentary and sound out market participants. For quantitative data and league tables in relevant categories, Euromoney will utilise data compiled by the Islamic Finance Information Service (IFIS) www.securities.com/ifis
