

Home

Public events

Thinking Like a Social Scientist Lent Term

Videos

Podcasts

LSE Live

Events transcripts

Today's events

This week's events

Next week's events

This month's events

Next month's events

LSE events programme

Coming to an event at LSE

Ticketed events

Browse LSE events information

Search LSE events information

Events transcripts 2010

The Importance of Alternative Financing: global perspectives on Islamic finance

Page contents > Podcasts

LSE and Harvard Law School public lecture

Date: Wednesday 24 February 2010

Time: 6.30-8pm

Venue: Hong Kong Theatre, Clement House

Speakers: Stephen Green, Dr. M. Umer Chapra

Chair: Professor Sarah Worthington

This lecture discusses the growing role alternative financing arrangements, such as Islamic finance, have on the global financial markets. It explains how morality or faith based forms of finance can continue to enhance modern finance in the future.

Stephen Green is group chairman of HSBC Holdings Plc.

Dr. M. Umer Chapra is Research Adviser at the Islamic Research and Training Institute (IRTI) of the Islamic Development Bank (IDB).

Sarah Worthington is Pro Director for Research and External Relations and Professor of Law, LSE.

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required. Entry is on a first come, first served basis. For more information, email events@lse.ac.uk or call 020 7955 6043.

Media queries: please contact the Press Office if you would like to reserve a press seat or have a media query about this event, email pressoffice@lse.ac.uk

Podcasts

We aim to make all LSE events available as a podcast subject to receiving permission from the speaker/s to do this, and subject to no technical problems with the recording of the event. Podcasts are normally available 1-2 working days after the event.

Twitter

You can get immediate notification on the availability of an event podcast by following LSE public lectures and events on Twitter, which will also inform you about the posting of transcripts and videos, the announcement of new events and other important event updates.

If you are planning to attend this event and would like details on how to get here and what time to arrive, please refer to Coming to an event at LSE